RAID ON THE POLICE.—Raids by the police on other people are frequent and not much no-need when they occur. Last night, however, the programme was varied, a raid being made on the police-the raiders being Mayor Smith and Captain Wetster. They started out about block. During that time they visited all parts the city, and made the regulation call for the theers at various points. Only two of the eight flicers out answered the call promptly. Four others were found after a time, supposed to have been in houses, and two were not found at all. The raid caused considerable excitement in police circles, being entirely unexpected and the parties found delinquent were much ex ereised over the affair.

Mayor Smith examined the cases of the accused policemen this evening.
Officers Joseph Horseman and James Walter, on charge of deserting their beats, were dismissed from the force.
Officers Jerry Franks and Robert Tomlin. and Readymon Ogden and Travers, on the same charge, were suspended for sixty days.

SUSPECTED OF HORSE STEALING .- A min, giving his name as Gregory, was acrested this morning at Mr. Thes. Linnon's stable yard for having to his possession a horse supposed to have been stolen. He had offered the animal for $30, which was so much below its value that it aroused suspicion. Officer Jas. Smith arrested him, but, on being brought before Justice l'hompsen, no evidence was adduced against him, and he was dismissed.

Acquitten.—The trial of J. D. R. Snener for shooting Phomas W. Alams to Prioce George's county, Md., on the 27 h of September last, took place at Upper Maribore, on Wednesday, before Judge Ford. After hear ing the evidence, the jury brought in a verdict of acquittal, and Spencer was discharged. The prosecuting attorney represented the State and the accussed was defended by Hoo. Jos. K. Roberts and Franklin Roberts, esq.

LARGE FUNERAL. - The funeral of the late Wm. R. McLean, which took place to Washington, yesterday, was one of the largest ever seed in the District. It was attended by the Old Fellows and Typograph ed Union No. 101, of both of which organizations the deceased was a prominent member. The floral tributes were numerous and elaborate. Mr. McLeae was a native of this city, but spent his youth in Ports

THE LEGISLATORS.—The Richmond correspondent of the Petersburg Ind.x Appeal says that "the debt payers are by long olds the tuest looking and most intellegical mea in both branches of the Legislature," and goes on to counterate them, among the number placing Mr. Gerrge A. ATTEMPTED ROBBERY .- Some negroes tompted on Wedaesday night to reb the hay rick of Mr. Righted Lloyd, marthiseity. They had molen the waxon of Juda Conce. et this erry, as naticed elsewhere, and had it loaded up when Mr. Lloyd discovered them and pave the alarm. They out the horse besetrom the wagen and made their escape. It is believed that the peril s are known to the police.

MT. VERNON CHANNEL - The dredging may chine which as been at work. For some months in digging a channel from the main channel of the river, to Mount Vernon, finished its work resterday evening. There is now a fine wide and deep channel up to the whar!, allowing free passage of steamers even at low water. It is believed that the tides will keep the channel WHARF REPAIRS, -- Capt. Banks carried his pile driver to Piscataway Creek, this morning to drive some piles and repair the wharf at Farmington.

Another wharf, in the creek and one at Fort Washington will be repaired before his return. Capt. Rogers' pile driver is at work in Osoo quan Bav.

Police ITEMs. -- There was very little of interos: at the Station House to day.

MONETARY AND COMMERCIAL.

Business, as the Christmas holidays agar such, continues to show signs of decided brisknen and the retail trades are all doing a good busines. Money matters in this city ere quiet, the su; ply being equal to the demand, with an essing tendency. In New Yo.k 6.7 per cent is the quotation for call loans on stocks, and 5 per cent. on United States bonds. Time loans and prime Government or other good collateral are made pitious aspect of affairs, men of good Judgment think that there must be a reaction, and that while the lowest point may not yet have been reached, there must be an improvement at no distant day. At the Baltimore Stock Board yesterday consols opened with a further decline of 2 per cent., selling at 52, and declined to 51; after which the price recovered to 521, the sales at the first board amounting to $20,500. At the second board $25,000 sold at 524, seller 30, and the closing was 522 bid, and 512 asked, against fourths. We quote:
